

Arizona History Forum

A Program of the Arizona Historical Society

Support Arizona and become part of a culturally-aware cadre of volunteers who can provide interpretive experiences for visitors to the Arizona Historical Society museums.

Using Studies in Arizona History and assigned readings, you will learn the fascinating history of Arizona and all its people, from prehistoric through contemporary times.

Strike up the band . . .
Here comes the Arizona History Forum!

Guest lecturers and museum staff will provide background information about collections and archives in addition to state history.

Education staff will demonstrate touring techniques as well as gallery activities to illustrate concepts.

Some of the benefits to you are:

- Life-long learning opportunity
- Skill and knowledge development
- Involvement in challenging and rewarding work supporting your community
- Social opportunities and interaction with those of similar interests
- Free or discounted admission to AHS programs
- Museum store discount

The Arizona History Forum is a series of 10 Monday afternoon classes: February 6-13-27, March 5-12-19-26, and April 2-16-23, 2012.
