

Buffalo Soldiers on the Arizona Frontier

The Buffalo Soldiers were African Americans who served in the United States Military as members of the 9th and 10th Cavalry. These soldiers were given the nickname “Buffalo Soldiers” by American Indians. The Buffalo Soldiers were known for being some of the most dedicated soldiers in the United States. One of the most famous members of the Buffalo Soldiers was Lt. Henry O. Flipper. Besides being the first African American to graduate from West Point, a famous U.S. Military Academy, he later became the first African American editor of a white newspaper in Nogales, Arizona.
