

1908 International Harvester Touring Car

This wooden-wheeled Touring Car was used for trips up the Apache Trail outside Phoenix. The car was designed to carry 8-12 people, and a one-way trip lasted 8 hours. The O.S. Stapley Company used these cars for giving tours. These cars replaced horse-drawn coaches and helped tourists explore the Apache Trail.

