

What do I look like?
Olive Oatman

My name is Olive Oatman, I was born in Illinois to Royce and Mary Ann Oatman. I am fair skinned with dark eyes and dark hair. My hair is usually pulled back into a barrette, and the ends are curled though my hair is naturally straight.

My face is heart-shaped and I have strong dark eye brows above my large dark eyes. My nose is of the average size and shape, proportionately as wide as it is long. I have a rather small mouth with thin lips.

I was at one time kidnapped by Indians, who decided to tattoo my face as is their custom. The tattoo is dark in color and is on my chin from one side of my mouth to the other. From the middle of my lips to my chin are three dark lines, one sits in the middle of my chin with the other two placed about pinky width apart on either side of the middle line. At both ends of my lips I have two more thick lines coming down from the bottom of my lips to end of my chin. These two lines are thicker than the ones in the middle and have what look to be two triangles facing out towards the back of my head.
